Social Sciences (Anthropology/
Political Science/Sociology)

Spanish Language and Literature

These categories and the assignment of papers to them are subject to change based upon the number of submissions. Students should discuss the choice of appropriate categories with their mentors.

Approach

The methods and tools of research/analysis will vary from discipline to discipline. For example, field work might be part of an anthropology presentation while lab reports might be featured in a scientific or technical paper. All submissions must show the results of research, reflection, and an original perspective.

Criteria

Quality and originality of research, written work, and oral presentation.

Length

Maximum length of 5,000 words (approx. 20 typewritten, double-spaced pages) for papers and 20 minutes for presentations. After each presentation, 10 minutes will be reserved for questions from the judge and the audience.

Format

1. Typed, double-spaced on 8 1/2 x 11" white paper with left-hand margin of 1 1/2" and at least 1" top, bottom and right. Pages must be numbered with Arabic numerals in the upper right-hand corner.
2. References should be incorporated according to the guidelines of the discipline (MLA, APA, etc.). Name of the student or college must not appear anywhere other than on the title page; however, the title of the paper should appear at the top of the first page of the text.
3. The paper must include the Beacon cover sheet, which provides student, mentor, and paper data. The cover sheet can be obtained from the conference directors, mentors, or the Beacon Website: www.beaconconference.org.

Submission

Submit six copies of each paper, including a completed cover sheet to:
